AMONG FRIENDS

When I let go of a problem, I do not solve the problem, but I free myself for other things. When I give up wrestling with it and worrying over it, I turn it over to God and the right answer will come. Sometimes it comes from within me. Many times, it comes from other people which reminds me that God is in other people, regardless of who they are. If it comes from within me, what used to be a hunch or the occasional inspiration gradually becomes a working part of my mind. Use the gift from God, your faith and see your faith as part of everyday living instead of just on the weekend.

Join us!

IF YOU ARE GOING TO THE HOSPITAL AND

want a priest for the Sacrament of the Sick or the Last Rites, please call the rectory & ask for Father to come to your home before entering the hospital. Or, if you want, see Fr. Canavan after Mass and request the Sacrament of the Sick. Father wants to anoint parishioners. This is not an open invitation for anyone from another parish or someone who is not in any parish. Our parishioners must understand that when a request comes in for people in other parishes, the pastors of those parishes do not take kindly toward Father Canavan visiting their parishioners.

WORK WHERE YOU PARK

Available - 3,900 square feet of professional office space. Ridley Professional Building, 1553 Chester Pike, Crum Lynne, PA 19022. Interested call Christina Perrone 610-256-1981.

FRIDAYS OF LENT

Those between 14 and 59 must fast and not eat between meals on Good Friday. All Catholics must not eat meat on the Fridays of Lent.

TROUBLE IN WOMEN'S BATHROOM

On Sundays we have had several incidents with someone stuffing toilet paper in one of the toilets. We ask that if you discover this to immediately notify Father Canavan or Joe McCullough, our sacristan. We are very disappointed that someone is deliberately causing this inconvenience for others. If this continues then mothers must accompany their children to the bathroom.

JUST A THOUGHT FROM SISTER KATIE.....

Just a Thought

February 24th – 25th

Our reading today from Genesis speaks about Abraham and what God was asking of him. You may recall that last week we listened and pondered the story of Our Lord in the desert. Do you think God is trying to get our attention? He knows there will be days filled with much joy and happiness and then days that are difficult and seemingly test our faith.

Our Church gives us readings every week, but especially in the season of Lent, to remind us that God so loved the world that He gave us His only Son. Not only did God give us Jesus, but as we walk thru Lent and into Holy Week we are invited to walk with Jesus in His suffering, death and resurrection. That's the gift God gives to you and me, to be a sharer in Christ's suffering, to feel His pain so we in turn can help others who do not know Him, to feel His love..

Someone so precious, God's only son, willing to die for us so that one day we can rise with Him and be one in heaven with Him and with all those we love who make the choice to follow a crucified Lord and Savior.

God never promised life would be easy, but God did promise to 'be with us always'. God keeps His promise. He will never ask of us anything without giving us the graces needed to shoulder any burden we carry, with Him.

Try during Lent, not just to hear the Readings, but to really take them to heart. Let God and His Son, Jesus, fill you with the words and the graces so needed to follow them. Let God and His Son Jesus fill you with such peace that you can reach out to those you love and help them find God. Let God and His Son Jesus help you be more open to being used by God for others. That my dear friends, is what Lent is all about.

Our Responsorial Psalm this week-end is our challenge, "I believed, even when I said, "I am greatly afflicted." We all carry burdens, we all have good days and days not so good, but never forget, we never walk alone. God loves us and walks with us, every moment of every day.

Finally, hear God speaking to you, to me, as He spoke in our Gospel, “This is my beloved Son, listen to Him.”

God bless you and yours...
