AMONG FRIENDS

The future of St Rose parish is not just a place where we're going. It is also a place that we will, under God's guidance, create. It is God's will that we become a community of people, not just people who attend weekend mass together. As a community we contribute $2,000 a month to St Teresa of Calcutta's religious sisters who do God's work in Chester, and work with the poorest of the poor. Those of us who use the blue envelopes contribute to 45 of our church going families who are in need each month. We pray each Tuesday after the 8am Mass the prayers that Mother Teresa used and our intention is to bring back those who need a good confession. In this way they can return to the Eucharist. We provide dinners for our parishioners free of charge so that more people can get to know one another.

For us, the Church must and can do more than survive. Unless we grow, St Rose will experience what other parishes in our diocese now experience, that is, a gradual loss of people at weekend masses. Nowadays, a parish either grows or dies. A parish might get out of financial troubles, but if their efforts at drawing back those who left Christ in His Church is weak, then the darkness will come on them and they will exist, but weakly exist. So I pray that you will invite others to our parish. I am looking for people who have dropped out of the Church. That is a sure sign of God's blessing us as His people.

REMEMBER GOD WANTS TO HELP YOU. - FR CANAVAN

ELEANOR'S JOKE OF THE WEEK:

A man asked his wife, "What would you most like for your birthday?" She said, "Oh, I'd love to be ten again." He came up with a plan and, on the morning of her birthday, he took her to a theme park. They rode every ride in the park. Lunchtime soon came, so into McDonald's they went, where she was given a Big Mac with French fries and a milkshake. After lunch, he took her to a movie theater to watch the latest movie for kids – complete with popcorn and soda. At last, she staggered home with her husband and collapsed into bed. Her husband leaned over and asked, "So sweetheart, what was it like being ten again?" She looked at him and said quietly, "Actually, I meant the dress size."

NO SCRIPTURE CLASS THIS WEDNESDAY

NO CONFESSIONS THIS TUESDAY

NO 8AM MASS THIS WEEK

JUST A THOUGHT from Sister Katie....

Take a moment and think back a to Palm Sunday, April 9th, Holy Week, the celebration of Easter, Feast of the Ascension, Pentecost, Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, then just last week-end the celebration of the Body and Blood of Christ, we walked with Christ from rejection, suffering, and death, to the giving of Himself in Eucharist, to be food for our journey.

From the procession of Palm Sunday when the crowd was crying out to make Christ their King, to Good Friday, hearing the words; "Crucify Him...Crucify Him."

The celebration of so much, then back to "Ordinary Time". (Is there such a term in any of our lives of late, 'ordinary.?)The Christ we celebrated is far from ordinary in His love for each of us. We too fall, make mistakes, but are helped over and over again, to know His love, to feel His Presence, and most especially, having the gift of receiving Jesus into our own bodies.

Jesus invites us as Catholics to come together, to walk with Him in the moments of joy and happiness to the times of utter despair. Every times we come to Holy Mass; we gather and celebrate not only His death, but His rising from the dead. His return to the Father; the coming of the Holy Spirit, the realization that not only is Jesus with us, but Trinity Sunday, the celebration of God, Father, Son and Spirit, within you and me.

Like Jeremiah in our First Reading, we hear whisperings of warning, terror on every side; our Psalm reminds us we will bear insults, be made outcasts, (even among our own.) Yet, not once but three times in today's Gospel, Jesus Himself tells us, "Do not be afraid."

Every single moment of every single day, hear Christ say to you "Do not be afraid." Not even the smallest sparrow falls to the ground without the Father's knowledge. We are loved so much more than the sparrow, so precious to Christ.

Our psalm reminds us to seek God, in so doing, God fills your heart with His Presence, His guidance, direction, and love. Dear friends, the above are God's words spoken to us, He loves you, He loves me. Talk to Christ, let Him into your being, your heart, feel the peace only He can give you. We are blessed indeed.

Steadfast in this faith, you can resist the evil one. Satan is the enemy who seeks the ruin of our soul, he will not win. Knowing that we gather, sing praise and offer thanksgiving in every Mass, every Eucharist.

This week strive to recall the words of Christ who promised 'that we who declare our faith in Him before others will be remembered before our Heavenly Father.' In times of stress, fear, turmoil, simply pause and say, "Jesus", let Him come to you, feel His peace, His love. Amen..

God bless you and yours, you are in my prayers.

SR. KATIE NEEDS HELP THIS MONDAY NIGHT
