AMONG FRIENDS

Some Scripture quotes that will help you. Remember this is God's word to you and God does not lie. From 1 Corinthians 10 verse 13; "No test has been sent to you that does not come to all people. Besides God keeps His promise. He will not let you be tempted beyond your strength. Along with the test He will give you a way out so that you will be able to endure it. From 2 Corinthians 6 verse 9; "let us not grow tired of doing good for in due time we will reap our harvest if we do not give up." From Ephesians 3, 20, "...His power is now at work in us and do immeasurably more than we can ask or imagine." Some advice from St Paul "I do not think of myself as having reached the finish line. I give no thought as to what lies behind but push on to what is ahead. My entire attention is on the finish line as I run toward the prize which God calls me-life with Jesus Christ. (All of us who are spiritually mature must have this attitude.) It is important that we continue on our course, no matter what stage we have reached. From the letter to the Colossians, "You must hold fast to the faith. Be firmly grounded in it."

IF YOU ARE GOING TO THE HOSPITAL AND

want a priest for the Sacrament of the Sick or the Last Rites, please call the rectory & ask for Father to come to your home before entering the hospital. Or, if you want, see Fr. Canavan after Mass and request the Sacrament of the Sick. Father wants to anoint parishioners. This is not an open invitation for anyone from another parish or someone who is not in any parish. Our parishioners must understand that when a request comes in for people in other parishes, the pastors of those parishes do not take kindly toward Father Canavan visiting their parishioners.

JUST A THOUGHT FROM SISTER KATIE

April 21st – 22nd

Today's Gospel we see our beloved Jesus comparing Himself to a good shepherd who know and cares for His sheep.

This image is a favorite among many artists and storytellers when talking about Jesus and His unending love for each of us.

The Good Shepherd not only cares for each person created in His image and likeness but also challenges us to care for the world in which we live and if we listen, Jesus demonstrates how we can do just that in how we love one another.

In our world today, we see so many occasions of people against other people, perhaps because of their nationality, the color of their skin, the country from which they came.

Jesus Christ gave to every one of us the mission of shepherding His people, bringing all people into a relationship with His Father, God.

St. Peter in our First reading tells the stone rejected by the builders became the cornerstone, Reminding us that there is no salvation through anyone else.

Our Psalm tells how they rejected Christ, but God turned their rejection into the cornerstone of a new beginning, a new spiritual temple, the church.

Our Shepherd, Jesus, speaks to us through the ministry of the church, Christ forgives our faults, takes away our sins and gives us His very own Body and Blood as food for our journey in life.

In our Second Reading, can I invite each of us to pause and reflect on just that first sentence;

“Beloved, see what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God, yet so we are.”

My dear friends, I end by inviting us to spend some time on the above, feel God's love for you. Feel His wisdom, strength, His caring concern, invite Him into your heart, into every phase of our life.

The Father's love allows us to be called the children of God, and so we are.

God bless us and let us pray for those who feel unloved to know God is right there with them. May they feel His presence and know His peace.
