ELEANOR'S JOKE OF THE WEEK:

Through the pitch-black night, the captain sees a light dead ahead on a collision course with his ship. He sends a signal: "Change your course ten degrees east." The light signals back: "Change yours ten degrees west." Angry, the captain sends another signal: "I'm a navy captain! Change your course, sir!" "I'm a seaman, second class” comes the reply. “Change your course, sir!” Now the captain is furious. “I’m a battleship! I’m not changing course!” There is one last reply: “I’m a lighthouse. It’s your call.”

AMONG FRIENDS

Sometimes we can pretend to be humble and pretend that we have given our lives to God, but that’s not true. It is more along these lines. If only I could be in charge of my life and what happens to me. If only I could control the people in my life. I could make an excellent assistant to God. I’m humble. I don’t have to have the top job. (although that would be nice), but being an assistant will do just fine. At least, I’d be sure of having access to the top.

CHANGE YOUR CLOCK BACK AN HOUR

November 5, 2017

IF YOU ARE GOING TO THE HOSPITAL AND

want a priest for the Sacrament of the Sick or the Last Rites, please call the rectory & ask for Father to come to your home before entering the hospital. Or, if you want, see Fr. Canavan after Mass and request the Sacrament of the Sick. Father wants to anoint parishioners. This is not an open invitation for anyone from another parish or someone who is not in any parish. Our parishioners must understand that when a request comes in for people in other parishes, the pastors of those parishes do not take kindly toward Father Canavan visiting their parishioners.

JUST A THOUGHT FROM SISTER KATIE.....

Just a Thought

October 14th – 15th

Psalms 23, can I simply suggest that Psalm 23 is probably one of the best known and loved of the psalms, yes!

The opening verse, “The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.”

Take a second and close your eyes and see God smiling upon you; ‘God leads you, God guides you, God loves you.’

Christ Jesus, God’s very Son, has led us to his great feast of love, Christ, God’s Son refreshed our souls in the waters of Baptism, Christ Jesus, spreads the table of His love before us each time we come to Holy Mass, and it is Christ Jesus Himself, given to you and me as food for our journey in life every single time we receive Him in Eucharist.

We are loved not because we are without sin, that we are perfect, we are loved because God gave us His only Son to walk thru life’s journey with us, to forgive others in response to the many times we have been forgiven. All we have to do is follow Him and we will know a peace that nothing and no one can ever take away.

In our readings at Mass we heard the words spoken to those who came to the feast not fully prepared; “Many are called, few are chosen.” Let us not be those who presume that we can inflict pain, judge others, refuse to follow God’s laws, and still reap the reward as if it was owed to us. “Many are called, few are chosen.”

Our God is a God of mercy but also a God of justice, a God of compassion as well as a God who gave us laws to follow and expects us to follow them in order to reach our heavenly home. We all make mistakes, we all ‘mess up,’ God doesn’t look at that side of our life, He sees our effort, and is always there to reach down, comfort, forgive you and me so we can stand tall and follow Him.

Try this week to recall the words of our Gospel acclamation, “May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, so that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.”

God bless you and have a great week.
