

March 10, 2024: The Fourth Sunday in Lent

March is Dedicated to St. Joseph and St. Patrick

Dear St. Patrick, in your humility, you called yourself a sinner, but you became a most successful missionary and prompted countless pagans to follow the Savior. Many of their descendants in turn spread the Good News in numerous foreign lands. Through your powerful intercession with God, obtain the missionaries we need to continue the work you began. We ask this Through Christ, our Lord.

Blessings and Joy: Three New Auxiliary Bishops Consecrated This Past Thursday

We announced in December that Pope Francis has named three new auxiliary bishops to assist Archbishop Perez. The new bishops are, as shown, (L-R): Bishop Keith Chylinski, Bishop Efren Esmilla, and Bishop Christopher Cooke. Please pray for them as they begin their new service in the Archdiocese.

Next Sunday is St. Patrick's Day; Coffee, Tea and Scones in the Church Hall

Please wear your green on the occasion of St. Patrick's Day. Following the 7:30am and 10:15am Masses, we will have homemade scones, other pastry, and coffee and tea in the Church Hall.

Special Treat: The Notre Dame Players Choir will be visiting St. Rose to sing during the breakfast following the 10:15am Mass. Our own Michael Pauley, and other local Catholic Carolers will be singing some famed Irish Tunes.

Special Flowers have been ordered to honor both St. Patrick, located in the vestibule, and St. Joseph, on his Feast Day on Tuesday.

March 17th will be Otto's 14th month birthday, and since in January we couldn't celebrate his 1st birthday, we can do so next Sunday.

March Envelope Packets: Missing Easter Flowers Envelope

Sometimes I feel I can't win for trying. Last week, as I explained that we were not having a separate Parish Mailing for Easter and Easter Flowers, to then find out that the March Envelope Packet DOESN'T include the Easter Flowers Envelope.

Please be mindful: The Easter Flowers envelope will be in the April Packet. We again are planning to have a nice assortment of Easter Lilies and other Spring Flowers and are grateful for your donations towards them.

Both the Easter and Easter Flowers Envelopes are available in the Church for those who would choose to use them, or for those who don't receive mail from us. Thank you for your generosity.
